

TIGERWOOD

Goncalo Alves

Our Goncalo Alves is harvested in South America and is commonly used in Millwork products such as furniture, cabinetry, carving, turned objects, and other small wood specialty objects. It is very durable and possesses excellent weathering properties. The heartwood is typically a medium reddish or golden brown with irregularly spaced streaks of dark brown to black. Colors darken with age.

Appearance & Grain

Uniform Medium Reddish Brown, Irregularly Spaced Streaks of Dark Brown to Black. Interlocked Grain Patterns, Fine Uniform Texture.
