

IROKO

Milicia excelsa

Our Iroko is sourced from Africa and is commonly used in Millwork products such as furniture, cabinetry, turned items, and other small specialty wood items. Iroko is very durable and has a good insect and borer resistance. Its heartwood is yellow to golden or medium brown, darkening with age.

Appearance & Grain

Fun Fact:

Many researchers believe that Iroko reveals the presence of proteins and carbohydrates in the aqueous extracts from the different parts of the wood.
